

CAMPAIGN FOR TACKLING ACQUIRED DEAFNESS

A self-help group run for and mainly by people who have become hard of hearing.

You or one of your family might benefit from a visit to our:

INFORMATION & RESOURCE CENTRE

Based at the London Road Community Hospital

At the Resource Centre we have a range of equipment for you to try in a friendly atmosphere free of sales pressure.

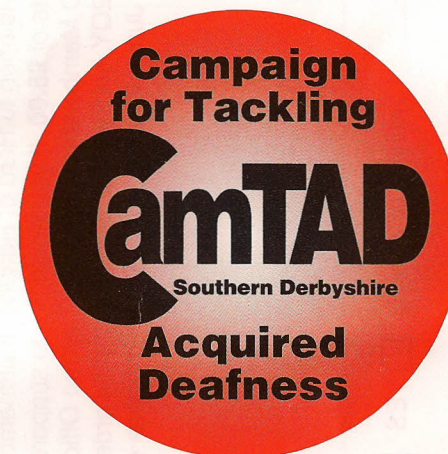

CamTAD is a registered charity and does not sell any products but does offer a loan service.

Contact us to make an appointment for a personal demonstration of equipment.

HOW ELSE CAN CamTAD HELP?

- by putting you in touch with others who know what it is like to experience acquired deafness - that is loss of hearing after the development of speech.
- by providing you with information about:
  - lip-reading classes
  - aids to assist the use of the television, telephone or doorbell
  - social events and support groups
  - Social Services
- CamTAD also provides Deaf Awareness Training to independent and statutory organisations
- local outreach clinics for practical assistance with NHS hearing aids, cleaning, retubing and batteries
- visits to residential and nursing homes
- home visits for people unable to travel to an outreach.
